LEAH DYCK

Defendant

RESPONSE TO REQUEST TO ADMIT

In response to your request to admit dated November 13, 2024, the plaintiff:

1. Admits, in part, the truth of paragraph 1. The plaintiff admits that on April 13, 2022, an employee of the plaintiff delivered an e-mail to the defendant stating:

“Hi Leah,

We appreciate your patience. I heard back from accounting and the hold up on the review of our file is because of the amount of the credit. It is in the final stages of being audited to make sure it is a true credit. We hope to have approval by today latest tomorrow.”

2. Admits paragraph 2.
3. Denies the authenticity of the “transcript” referenced in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6.
4. Admits paragraphs 3, 4, 5 and 6 insofar as Mary-Anne Denny-Lusk made the statements quoted in those paragraphs.
3. Denies the authenticity of the document referenced in paragraph 7, notwithstanding paragraph 7 is not a proper request to admit but instead a request to produce a document, which document does not exist.
